

INTERNET SAFETY NIGHT!

Cyber Bullies!

Identity Thieves!

Online Predators!

Join us in person or online for Internet Safety Night

April 10, 2007

6:30–8:30 p.m.

Learn about the best resources to help keep your family safe!

FEATURED SPEAKER: Lt. Joe Laramie of the Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force and the Glendale Police Department will share information and answer questions about Internet safety.

Plus other speakers:

- Det. Andy Anderson, Coordinator, Mid-Missouri Internet Crimes Task Force
- Chris Jones, Jefferson City FBI Office
- Jay Webster, Principal, Boonville High School
- David Sill, IT Manager, SOCKET

Be a part of Internet Safety Night anytime, anywhere! The entire event will be broadcast via streaming video at besafe.more.net for those that would like to view the event or get their own communities involved! And you can always contact MOREnet at isn@more.net for help or more information.

For information about Internet Safety Night and other online safety resources, visit besafe.more.net.

Thanks to our media sponsors:

